King to Hold Tele-Town Hall, Answer Questions from Maine People

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Tomorrow, Tuesday, May 19th, 2020 at 3:20 p.m., U.S. Senator Angus King (I-Maine) will hold a tele-town hall, and encourages Maine people to call in with questions related to the federal government's response to the coronavirus pandemic.

WHO: Senator Angus King

WHAT: Tele-town hall with Senator King

WHEN: Tuesday, May 19th, 2020
3:20 p.m. to 4:20 p.m.

WHERE: Maine constituents – and members of the press seeking to cover the event – can call the toll free number: 833-380-0714

Since the coronavirus pandemic began, Senator King has worked hard to stay connected to Maine people. Throughout the pandemic, Senator King has engaged with Maine people from all walks of life and helpful organizations to address questions surrounding the coronavirus pandemic and identify remaining work to be done. Since the Senate passed the CARES Act, Senator King has made continuous engagement a priority, participating in teleconferences and phone calls with hundreds of Maine people, including:

- Maine educators, including Maine JumpStart Coalition's two Finance Educators of the Year, EducateMaine's County Teachers of the Year, and civics and history teachers from schools across Maine.
- Maine business leaders, including members of the Maine State Chamber of Commerce, Penobscot Bay Regional Chamber of Commerce, the New England Council, 120 of Portland's small business owners and 500 Maine employees of Sun Life.
